The following is a release and waiver, by signing it you give up any claim for injury or illness of any kind:

I, the undersigned, understand that the HURL Elkhorn 23K Run is a difficult trail race through rugged mountainous terrain, that most of the course is accessible only by foot or horseback, that there are inherent risks associated with my participation, and that my participating may subject me to injury and/or illness, or worse. I understand that running on backcountry trails poses many hazards, including but not limited to: rapid weather changes; falling trees; becoming lost; wildlife encounters; bovine encounters; and downfall timber. Quick evacuation for medical emergencies is not feasible. Elkhorn trails include rocks, roots, stream crossings and cow pies among other hazards. In signing, I give statement that I am in good health, that I have trained sufficiently to participate in this event, will be prepared for race day conditions, and that there is no medical reason that I should not attempt this feat. In consideration of acceptance of this application by the race organizers, I forever waive, release, and discharge any and all rights, demands, claims for damages, and causes of suit or action that I may have against any and all race organizers, sponsors, supporters, volunteers, private land owners, Jefferson County, HURL, USATF, RRCA, and the U.S. Government. I will assume and pay my own medical and emergency expenses in the event of accident, illness, or other incapacitation, regardless of whether I have authorized such expense. Participants are responsible for staying on course, not race management or race volunteers. By signing, I agree to pay any and all search and rescue costs should race management request such services on my behalf. Getting off course in no way qualifies participants for a refund. Race management reserves the right to disqualify any participant who, in the opinion of race management solely, is abusive to race volunteers. Refunds will not be granted to disqualified participants.

The foregoing release is binding upon me personally, as well as upon my heirs, executors, administrators, all members of my family, or any others who might make a claim on my behalf.
